how do social connections improve resilience or exacerbate vulnerability of families?

Interconnected Convoys of Caregiver Networks structure and function of support networks of parents caring for children with rare disease investigates multi-centric interconnected convoys with respect to care-related interactions

- malfeasance (conflict)
- nonfeasance (disengagement)
- uplift (support)

how do social connections improve resilience or exacerbate vulnerability of families?